WAR ECHOES.

Concord Journal Officer, 2d, etc.
The commissioners to arrange for the evacuation of Cuba and Porto Rico have been appointed, the Spanish commissioners having been succeeded yesterday, which was the last day of the ten in which the commissioners had to be appointed. The commissioners are:

U.S.—For the United States, Maj. Gen. J. F. Wade, Maj. Gen. M. C. Butler and Rear Admiral Sampson. For Spain, Maj. Gen. Parada, Rear Admiral Paster and Marques Montero.

PORTO RICO—For the United States, Maj. Gen. John H. Brooks, Rear Admiral Schley, Brig. Gen. W. W. Gordon. For Spain, Maj. Gen. Otego, Comandante Vallarino and Judge Advocate Sanchez del Agua.

A Manila cable to the London Mail says that Merritt and Aguinaldo have agreed that the latter shall control outside of Manila for the present. The report is not confirmed.

The mustering out of volunteers will begin in earnest soon. Many regiments have already been ordered to State camps to be in readiness for the final order. The list of regiments making up about 75,000 troops to be mustered out has been completed and will probably be announced today. Contrary to the first impression, the War Department has issued the volunteers, or at least the privates among them, anxious to leave the service since the fighting is over. Adj't Gen. Curtis has issued an order giving in detail the plan to be pursued in mustering regiments out of the service.

The men in eleven companies of the Second Kentucky Regiment circulated and sent to Secretary Alger petitions asking to be mustered out of the service. The petitions are coming through official sources were sent back to Col. Gallop, and there may be trouble for some of those who instigated them. It is now reported that the regiments will be moved from Chickamauga to Huntsville, Ala.

The Rev. W. R. Conley of Stockbridge, Ga., while attending to his pastoral duties at Ellijwood, that state, was attacked by cholera morbus. He says: "By chance I happened to get hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy, and I think it it was the means of saving my life. It relieved me at once." For sale by A. M. Hughes.

A New Railway in Montana.

The completion of the Northern Pacific Ry. from White Hall, Mont., to Twin Bridges, Mont., a distance of 26 miles, opens up to both the miner and farmer the possibilities of the famous Jefferson Valley, rich both in the variety and quality of its mineral deposits and in the fertility of its soil, which for farming is equal to any in Montana. The three rivers which enter the valley separately but unite before going very far, furnish an abundance of pure water for all the present and future needs of the valley.

Twin Bridges is situated in the northwestern corner of Madison county, at the head of the beautiful Jefferson Valley. On either hand are the mountain ranges stretching away in the distance; here the contentment and freedom of the farmer's life is contrasted with the奔忙ness and activity of the miner's vocation; to the right the eye beholds herds of cattle and horses grazing on grass covered hills while here and there the miner is hard at work, extracting from the earth its precious metals.

Just at present the mining industry is the most prominent, gold being the principal metal taken from the ground, but with the Northern Pacific completed and in operation to Twin Bridges, the farmer and miner alike will prosper beyond anything heretofore possible.

To the owners of mines the call will be of incalculable value and the index of capital and commercial introduction of cheap and more modern mining methods will be a godsend to numerous miners who have hundreds of tons of low grade ore that could not easily be handled with profit owing to the expense of hauling to the city.

In a place of residence this valley is filled with many of the most prominent people and business men of the state, and the little towns and villages are filled with bear evidence.

BANKRUPT LAW.

WHO MAY AVOID BANKRUPT?

First—Any person who owes debt, except a corporation, shall be entitled to the benefit of the act as a voluntary bankrupt.

Second—Any natural person, except a wage-earner or a person engaged chiefly in farming or the like, or the oil, any incorporated company engaged principally in manufacturing, trading, printing, publishing or mercantile pursuits, owing debts to the amount of $1,000 or over may be adjudged an involuntary bankrupt.

Private bankers, but not national banks or banks incorporated under any State or territorial laws, may be adjudged an involuntary bankrupt.

Partnership may be adjudged a bankrupt. The court of bankruptcy having jurisdiction of one partner, is given jurisdiction over all the partners, and also over partnership and individual assets.

An individual partner may be adjudged a bankrupt. In such case the remaining partners who are adjudged bankrupt shall proceed with all reasonable dispatch to wind up the business of the partnership so as to ascertain the interests of the bankrupt partner, which interest, when so ascertained, shall be distributed in bankruptcy.

EXEMPTIONS.

The bankrupt shall be allowed the exemptions which are prescribed by State laws in force at the time of the filing of the petition in the State wherein such bankrupt has had his domicile for the six months or the greater portion thereof immediately preceding the filing of the petition.

SUITS BY AND AGAINST BANKRUPT.

A suit on any claim that would be released by a discharge in bankruptcy shall be stayed until after adjudication or dismissal of the petition in bankruptcy, or the court may order the trustee in bankruptcy to enter his appearance and defend any suit, or the trustee, with the consent of the court, may prosecute any suit commenced by the bankrupt before the petition in bankruptcy was filed. Suits shall not be brought by or against the trustee in bankruptcy two years after bankruptcy proceedings are closed.

COMPROMISE BY BANKRUPT.

A bankrupt may offer terms of compromise to his creditors, but not before he has been examined in open court or at a meeting of his creditors, and filed in court the schedule of his property and list of his creditors. This offer is subject to the action of the court. Any agreement approved by the court may postpone any suit commenced by the bankrupt before the petition in bankruptcy was filed. Suits shall not be brought by or against the trustee in bankruptcy two years after bankruptcy proceedings are closed.

FRIDAY, AUG. 26, 1858.

DEWEY FOR PRESIDENT.

New York, Aug. 17.—Tammany Hall has decided to make Dewey its presidential candidate in 1860. This morning's Telegraph, Crocker's personal organ, says:

"Milo Dewey President in 1860. Why not? Dewey is an American of the purest strain. Dewey is a Democrat, Grant was a Democrat, and the Republicans took him up, made over his politics, and then made him President twice. Dewey's politics is already written in perfect party time and tone. Dewey can be elected to the Whitehouse in 1860. There is no more popular name in the general mouth today. Name 'Dewey and Manila' the party cry; it will triumph now and it will triumph in 1860. Republicans have already decided on McKinley's renomination. Let the Democracy put up Dewey, and in the finish the chivalry candidate of Hancock will think his name's 'Manila.'

The Duty of Big Sandians.

Williams and Fitzpatrick are pledged to give their best efforts to the great project of improving the Big Sandy river and thus giving to the Ohio and Mississippi valleys the benefits of our enormous mineral deposits. Mr. Pugh has been thoroughly tested in this matter during his two terms of office and has failed to do any effective work whatever, or to give it serious attention. Mr. Scott does not live in the Big Sandy Valley and probably cares nothing for its interests.

For these reasons every voter in the valley should support Williams and Fitzpatrick. (Rank partisanship will prevent this, however.) The next session of Congress will present the greatest opportunity yet offered for securing a large appropriation for Big Sandy. We could name the host of reasons for this opinion, but will not do so now.

Work for Big Sandy development by voting for Williams and Fitzpatrick.

is found on sale in most every town and city in the country. In taste there is no mixture like it. In smell it far excels the double extract of well ripened fruit. Blue Licks has its place in history, for near here was fought the bloody battle between the Whites and Indians in which Boone lost a son and many other brave fellows "bit the dust." This fight was like the recent battle of San Juan Hill, but advised and fought at great odds. It is beyond the power of any man to take history, go on the ground and locate the battlefield. There is, however, a monument erected showing the exact spot, which is disputed by some old citizens here. This monument is a disgrace to the State, to Nicholas and Robertson counties, and to every citizen of this commonwealth. The battle ground is a lovely spot of earth covered with large cedar, a great many of which, I am told, are to be shipped to London for pinecones.

It was in this town, under the shade of the large elm, where Mrs. Harris Becher Stone wrote "Unto Tom's Cabin," a wicked publication, stimulating and gaining support to the abolition cause and reflecting upon noble hearts as the good Lord ever put in motion.

In the "Bluegrass" lived the chief characters in James Layne Allen's new book, "The Chair Invisible," which has proved a great success to the author. I would advise all who have not read it to do so.

While the Allwise Creator made here a landscape more beautiful than artist can paint, and instead in the rocks an element which by nature's law gives to these people a nerve and blood not shared by any other people of the earth. Still it does not take a Professor of Theology or a board of Bishops to see that God's gifts to these people are abused and are turned into a two-edged sword."

The people of Central Kentucky cast a little "it" at the mountain people. Domine over them socially, politically and otherwise. In politics this is more true of the Democrats than the Republicans. In public education our people lead. We have better school houses, better furniture, more teachers holding first grade certificates and less no good reason why the mountains should not be recognized as a part of the body-polity of Ky. A very novel and interesting ceremony took place at the residence of Mr. David Brown Wednesday.
As recently mentioned in this paper,
a male child was born to the house of Brown some days ago,
and in accordance with the faith of the children of Abraham the boy
was stamped with the sign which shows him to be an Israelite indeed. Rev. L. Klawan, of Clemont, was sent for to perform the rite, and on the day mentioned, in the presence of quite a number of relatives and friends from Cynthia, Lexington and Point Pleasant
and one of our local physicians,
the ceremony was performed according
to ancient form and usage.

The Rabbi, clad in his robes of office and chanting a psalm, received the child from a relative.
He then gave it to Mr. Brown, who held it while the Rabbi performed the peculiar act. At its conclusion he dipped a finger in wine and put it three times on the child's lips.
He then took the child in his arms,
chanting quite a long prayer in Hebrew, during which he pronounced the boy's name—Wolf Dovey Brown. This concluded the religious part of the affair, the first of this kind ever witnessed in Louisa. The dining room was then visited, where an elegant luncheon of fruits, tea, wine and cake was served, and long life and prosperity for the infant son and her was the toast given by all.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

George Sellers, a miner of the upper Torchlight mine, sustained painful and serious injuries Tuesday afternoon. He was drilling in a knelling posture when a large mass of slate fell upon him, burying him completely. He was extricated as soon as possible, and upon examination it was found that both thighs had been broken, the right one in two places. His ankle was also badly cut and bruised.
Sellers is a single man and lives at Torchlight with his brother-in-law.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Certain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month
by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a

and that no medicine would do her any good. Her druggist suggested and well. Free trial bottles of this great discovery at A. M. Hughes'

EDMONDS BRANCH,
Mrs. J. B. Cox is off on a pleasure trip to Gettysburg. Your scribe and a few others from here attended what had been advertised as being the play entitled Uncle Tom's Cabin at Louisville Saturday night and saw a few scattering acts beginning at Eliza's escape and from there on through. To see the whole thing played just right Uncle Tom's Cabin would be fine, wouldn't it?

Old Uncle Billy short died Saturday and was buried Sunday. His funeral will be preached by the Rev. H. R. Hewlett. Uncle Billy was one of our early pioneers. He will be sadly missed in our section. His many relatives have our deepest sympathies.

A somewhat destructive wind and rain swept over our section last Thursday. The wind only struck the corn fields and cane patches in places, but whenever it struck it left its mark behind.

Cobe Sparks was bitten on top of the bare foot by a copper head snake. At first his friends predicted for him serious results, but we understand that he is now able to eat.

Hattie, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Carter, is convalescing from a catarrhal trouble.

Mrs. William Hughes, whose husband is contending against the Spaniards, is here looking out a location among us.

From Fallsburg comes the news of the serious illness of old Mother Shortridge. She is of considerable age and is suffering from a paralytic stroke.

The reports from different sections are to the effect that egg and chicken thieves are getting in their work in great shape.

Judge Woods of Webbville, was here one day last week. He says he would be ready for a trade, but there is no cattle nor sheep to trade on and hogs are no price. The stock merchants all report a dull time.

Yellowstone Park.

As more and more impressing itself upon the public as the years go by, as the Great Park of the land. The strong feature of it is the fact that it is not a man made park. True enough man has built roads and bridges and hotels in order that he may see the park, but he has not yet tried his hand at constructing new fangled geyser, or re-adoring or re-sculpturing the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone. These are as God left them. There, too, the elk, bear, deer and other animals are not enclosed in wire fences. They wander free and unfettered whithersoever they will. Man's handiwork is but little seen, and the park is the grander for it. Send Chas. S. Peo, General Passenger Agent, Northern Pacific Railway, six cents for Wonderland, and two about the Park.

A Canoe Trip Through the Park Region.

The Lake Park Region of Minnesota is noted as being one of unusual attractiveness. There are thousands of lakes, good fishing, rolling and timbered prairie country, stocks and prairie chickens, wild flowers and good roads. An article with the above heading describes a boat trip from Detroit Lake through a long chain of beautiful lakes connected by a little river, into the heart of the Park country. The party had a guide, lived in tents, and, although surrounded by civilization, seemed at times to be in the midst of solitude. The possibilities in an outing of say two weeks, are brought to the attention of those whom desires lead them to indulge in out-door life at moderate expense. Wonderland, $6, published by the Northern Pacific Railway, which this article is printed, will be mailed to any address by Chas. S. Peo, General Passenger Agent, St. Paul, Minn., upon receipt of 6 cents.
